JOURNEY OF THE GREEN FIREFWOOD

---

A film by GOLCHEHR DAMGHANI

SYNOPSIS

'Tell your king that within this earth lies an edifice'.

This sentence, taken from a legend about the ancient Persian citadel known as 'Takht-e Soleymân', had been playing on my mind for some time.

The various political and social upheavals in Iran, from the 'Green Movement' to those of today, finally persuaded me to journey to the citadel's site with a group of friends.

Perhaps each step of our pilgrimage might help bring about change, or at least have an impact on the current situation in our land. And, who knows, we might even be able to fully accomplish the legend's prophetic message, made so many thousands of years ago.

BIOGRAPHY

Born in Tehran in 1975, Golchehr Damghani started studying theatre at Tehran University at age 17, whilst also working as an actor/playwright on both stage and radio.

In 2003 she left for France, where she obtained a degree in cinema and a master's in aesthetics from the University of Sorbonne, Paris and then worked as an actor, singer, assistant director and lighting designer.

She wrote her first play in French, 'Breakfast by the Deathbed/Petit-déjeuner au Chevet de la Mort' in 2011.

Since returning to Iran in 2016, she has worked as a playwright and theatrical director.

'Journey Of The Green Firewood' is her first feature-length film.
